

NEWS OF CITY AND COUNTY CONDENSED

Matters of General Interest Gathered by Our Reporters.

PERSONAL AND SOCIAL ITEMS

What Has Happened and What is Going to Happen Told in Short Paragraphs So That "He Who Runs May Read" It in The Sun.

From Friday's Daily Sun.

A. T. Kelley of Rochelle was a visitor to this city yesterday.

Andrew Feagle of Montecocha was trading in the city yesterday.

George Taylor of Palmer was in the city for a short time on business yesterday.

Mrs. C. E. and J. W. Melton of Micanopy were shopping in the city yesterday.

Attorney Geo. W. Scofield has returned from a visit to relatives and friends in the West End.

G. W. Sparkman, a prominent citizen of Waldo, was among those who spent Wednesday in this city on business.

Frank D. Irwin of Fairbanks, merchant and cigar manufacturer of that town, was a business visitor to this city yesterday.

J. W. Hason of Brooker, an extensive farmer and cross-tie contractor, was transacting business in this city yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Kennard have moved from West Gainesville to North Franklin street, where they are now pleasantly located.

J. H. Ward of LaCrosse was in the city yesterday. Mr. Ward called at The Sun office and had his name entered on the subscription list.

Mrs. C. A. W. Thomas and daughter have returned from Holder, where they have been on a pleasant visit to relatives for the past ten days.

R. H. Holstein, a prominent trucker and cross-tie contractor of Hague, was in the city yesterday. He made The Sun an agreeable and profitable call.

G. J. Eselle of Morriston was among those who spent yesterday in the city, having come on business connected with the United States land office.

Remember A. M. Dickson, the broker, when in the market for groceries, hay, grain and feed-stuff. Save money and time. Write or phone me. Both long-distance 'phones.

P. M. Padgett of New River was in the city yesterday. Mr. Padgett, who formerly resided in this county, is now extensively engaged in the naval stores business at New River.

J. H. Earle of the firm of Saunders & Earle left yesterday for Anderson, S. C., where he was called on account of the serious illness of his mother, who is suffering from paralysis. Friends hope he found her condition improved.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Fournier of Westfield, Conn., are rejoicing over the birth of a fine girl, which occurred on the 20th inst. Mrs. Fournier was formerly Miss Callie Easterlin of this city, and her numerous Gainesville friends extend congratulations.

John F. Jackson of Bronson, one of the oldest and most widely known residents of Levy county, was at the Brown House yesterday. Mr. Jackson is well known throughout the State, as he has held a responsible traveling position for the past twenty-five years.

Dixon Phillips of Meredith was in the city yesterday, having been summoned here as a witness in the famous Wetter-Stringer case. The young man was a pupil of the school at Bronson at that time, and witnessed the offense with which Prof. Wetter was charged.

E. W. Millican of Waldo, who has been here for the past few days on account of the illness of his little son, who is suffering from typhoid fever at the hospital, returned to Waldo to look after his business interests yesterday. Mrs. Millican is still with the little man.

Mrs. P. H. Quinn of Memphis, Tenn., and two nieces, the Misses Bush, of Georgia, after a brief but pleasant visit to the former's sister, Mrs. C. H. Davies, have made their departure for Memphis. The young ladies, who are very attractive, made many friends while here, all of whom regretted to see them leave so soon.

THE NEW WAY, THE EASY WAY, THE CHEAPEST WAY to make Ice Cream.

Simply Stir the contents of one package

Jell-O ICE CREAM Powder

Into a quart of milk and freeze. No heating or cooking; nothing else to add. One package makes nearly two quarts of fine ice cream. Costs about 1 cent a plate. Five kinds: Vanilla, Chocolate, Strawberry, Lemon and Unflavored. Approved by Pure Food Commissioners. No disease germs or poisonous poison in Jell-O Ice Cream Powder.

3 packages $1.00, 5 packages $1.50, 10 packages $2.50. If all your groceries haven't been sent to you, send us your name and address and our illustrated recipe book will be mailed to you.

The General Pure Food Co., Le Roy, N. Y. Visit our booth at Jamestown Exposition.

A. M. Dickson, for several years a traveling man, and one of the most widely known and most popular young men in this section, has rented a section of the store of S. F. Brooks, and will open a racket store as soon as his goods arrive. Mr. Dickson is a hustler, and will no doubt make a grand success of the venture. He will continue his brokerage business.

W. A. Strickland of Paradise and Prof. R. H. Montgomery of Hague were in the city yesterday. While assisting Mr. Strickland in the branding of some cattle a day or two ago, Prof. Montgomery fell a victim to a painful, though not serious accident, having cut a gash in the palm of one of his hands from the sharp end of a cow's horn. He is getting along all right, however, and no serious results are anticipated.

From Saturday's Daily Sun. M. D. Clouser of Trenton spent yesterday in this city.

C. Brinkley of Cyril was a business visitor to this city yesterday.

Captain W. P. Shettlesworth of Micanopy was in the city yesterday.

Marshal Chas. Crisman of Micanopy was among those who spent yesterday in this city on business.

George Byles, the merchant of Windsor, was among the business visitors to this city yesterday.

C. W. Bauknight of Archer, one of the leading merchants of that section, was in the city yesterday.

Mrs. O. McBeath and daughter of Lochloosa are in the city, guests of Prof. and Mrs. Tom. F. McBeath.

Stephen Cullen, formerly of this city but now engaged in farming at Hague, was transacting business in this city yesterday.

Hon. R. B. Weeks of Hawthorn, chairman of the Board of Public Instruction, was a business visitor to this city yesterday.

J. R. Feaster of Rochelle passed through the city yesterday en route to High Springs, where he was summoned on business.

Chas. and L. R. Kinsey of Bell were in the city yesterday. The former entered application for homestead with the United States land office.

For Rent—The Clarendon Cottages, Seabreeze. Fully furnished; water and electric lighting. Terms reasonable for the season. J. B. Crocker.

Robert McClellan, who has occupied for several years the store at 104 W. Liberty street, has moved to 109 W. Liberty street, where he will fit up a nice store.

Contractor Moody, who is painting the Presbyterian manse, has almost completed his labors, with the result that the building is looking considerably "refreshed."

Mr. and Mrs. Boardman of Hague were among those who favored Gainesville with a visit yesterday. Mrs. Boardman was formerly Miss Cora Jolly of this city.

T. R. Pickett and son, George, of Newberry, were in the city yesterday. They were en route from Tallahassee, where they have been for the past few days on business.

'Phone A. M. Dickson, broker, Gainesville, and get prices, quality and quick delivery. Goods sold from Jacksonville and the West. Can give delivery prices to all points.

J. D. Shaylor of Jacksonville was in the city for a short time yesterday. He was en route home from Archer, where he has been on a visit to Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Bauknight.

Anyone having eye trouble, headaches or any nervous complications, would do well to see Dr. Armstrong, the well-known eye specialist, while on his professional visit to Gainesville, which will be the second Monday in July, the 8th.

Surveyor J. W. Patton has returned from Waldo, where he has been on official business. Col. Patton has been engaged in surveying and laying out the plot of Waldo as it will be incorporated.

W. E. Smith, formerly engaged in the livery business at Newberry but now holding a traveling position, was in the city yesterday. Mr. Smith is possessed of a clever disposition, and will no doubt make a success on the road.

Mr. and Mrs. Aaron DaCosta, who have been residing on West Masonic street with Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Emerson, have removed to the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. DaCosta, East Main street N., where they will be glad to greet their friends.

Mrs. A. B. Oliver and little daughter, Miss Bessie, and little Miss Lola Kite, have returned from Houston, where they have been on a brief but pleasant visit to the former's brother, J. M. Kite. They are again at home to their friends, 208 N. Pleasant street.

Dr. E. H. Armstrong, the well-known eye specialist, will make his regular professional visit to Gainesville on the second Monday of the month, July 8th. Anyone in need of professional services in eye treatment should not fail to see the Doctor on that date at the Brown House.

John Williams of Fort Myers, formerly an employee of the mechanical department of The Sun, passed through the city Thursday en route from St. Petersburg to Alachua, where he will be connected with The Alachua Post. The Post, which has been dormant for some time, has been purchased by A. G. Waldron of Dade City, who will resume its publication about July 1.

T. W. Shands has returned from Ft. Myers, where he went to attend the funeral of his brother, Joseph E. Shands. Mr. Shands, who was a prominent citizen of Fort Myers, died in Atlanta, where he had been taken for special treatment, on Sunday, the 23rd inst. He was a native of the State, having been born at White Springs fifty-two years ago. He is survived by a wife and one daughter. Mrs. Conrad Menze of Fort Myers. The funeral was held at Fort Myers on Tuesday. Friends of Mr. Shands sympathize deeply with him in this bereavement.

From Sunday's Daily Sun:

Mrs. J. H. Alderman is on a visit to relatives in Waldo.

Solomon Warren is spending Sunday with friends in Jonesville.

One good milch cow and one good work horse for sale. A. S. Albright.

T. J. McRae has returned from a business trip to points in South Florida, having been absent several days.

J. H. Blackwell of Fairbanks and W. B. Holder of Santa Fe were among the visitors to Gainesville yesterday.

W. C. Hague, a well-known resident and planter of the town which bears his name, was trading in the city yesterday.

R. H. Holstein, the trucker and cross-tie contractor of Hague, was in the city yesterday and made The Sun an agreeable call.

L. Rutledge and Jerry Gregg, two industrious farmers, called at The Sun office yesterday and renewed their subscriptions.

George Gleason and sons, Alex Daughtrey and J. S. Crown were among the Rocky Point people who visited the county capital yesterday.

J. F. Futch of Haynesworth, one of The Sun's valued friends and subscribers, was among the visitors to this city yesterday, renewing his subscription.

Mrs. Hague Strickland passed through the city yesterday en route to her home at Paradise from Palmetto, where she has been on a pleasant visit for the past few days.

Miss Edith Baird has returned from Arcadia, where she has been engaged as a member of the faculty of the Arcadia school. Her numerous friends are delighted to have her home again.

Mrs. M. R. Colson has returned from Micanopy, where she was called a few days ago on account of the illness of her daughter, Mrs. S. G. Gay. Friends of the patient will be gratified to learn that she is improving.

E. K. Rosborough of Jacksonville was registered at the Brown House yesterday. Mr. Rosborough was for years a resident of Windsor, and is well known throughout the county. He is now holding a responsible traveling position.

WILSON'S

Why Be In Doubt?

SOMETIMES

?

You get your money's worth at other stores and sometimes you don't; but YOU KNOW by the test of 25 years' trading at this store that you are sure of Good, Honest Merchandise for every dollar you spend with us.

Cheap Goods

Are like soft soap—they do not last long. Why buy them when we sell better goods at about same figures?

Black Voiles $1.10, $1.25 and $1.50 per yard.

Black Taffeta Silks $1.00, $1.25, $1.35 and $1.50 per yard.

BIG LOTS

Embroideries, Laces, White Goods, Waistings, Dotted Swisses, Silk Pongees, Corsets, Etc.

BEAUTIFUL DESIGNS

In Figured Lawns at 10c yard.

In Organdies at 15c yard.

In Novelties at 25c, 35c and 50c yard.

ONE PRICE TO ALL.

Mrs. R. Wilson

Miss Julia Horn of Palatka was in the city yesterday on business connected with the office of County School Superintendent Kelley. Miss Horn is a teacher of highest recommendation. She taught in Hillsboro county last term.

Mrs. Rosa Waters, one of the efficient clerks at the delivery window at the postoffice, has returned from her vacation, which she spent with her husband at Hickman. Mrs. Waters is very popular with the public, and patrons of the office are glad to welcome her to her post again.

Albert M. Eddins, formerly of this city but now of New York, arrived in the city yesterday, and will be the guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Eddins, for a few days. He is now traveling in the interest of a large wall paper house. Friends here are glad to welcome him again.

J. E. Bryant, a well-known citizen and progressive farmer of Bell, was in the city yesterday. He called at The Sun office, renewing his subscription for two years. Mr. Bryant states that his section has been visited with refreshing rains recently, which will prove a great blessing to the growing crops.

J. M. Turner of Lake View was in the city yesterday. Mr. Turner has been on a brief but interesting visit to the Jamestown Exposition, stopping on his return in Brunswick, Ga., for a brief stay with his wife and daughter, the latter residing there. Mrs. Turner has been in Brunswick with her daughter for some time.

David Edelstein, formerly of this city, but now of New York, has arrived in Gainesville, and expects to remain here for a few weeks. Mr. Edelstein will assist his brother, Moses Edelstein, in his store. The family of the latter expect to spend the summer on the coast, and Mr. Edelstein's time will be divided between Seabreeze and Gainesville.

H. A. Fisher has returned from Bogalusa, La., where he has been for the past few months laying brick on the plant of an immense sawmill. Mr. Fisher states that this will be one of the largest plants in the United States when completed, as it will have a cutting capacity of 600,000 feet per day. His son, James Fisher, who accompanied him to Louisiana, and has been working with him, remained.

Miss Foy Lynn, the professional nurse who has been with the Packham family at Waldo, five of whom have been suffering from typhoid fever for several weeks, spent a few hours in the city yesterday, returning to Waldo in the afternoon. She reports that the three surviving patients are convalescent, and will probably be out soon. Two members of this unfortunate family died with typhoid within a few days.

Attention is directed to the advertisement of The G. W. Hyde Company, which appears in this issue. This enterprising firm expresses its appreciation at the elegant June business, but wants to make July even better, and with that object in view they will show a fine line of ladies' ready-to-wear goods, wash goods, silks and dress goods, cotton goods, millinery, etc., and invite the ladies to inspect the line and prices, assuring them of excellent values in every department.

ARNOW MAKES DISCOVERY.

Marshal Found Crocus Sack Filled With Patent Medicines.

While on his usual rounds Friday, Marshal Arnow discovered in the vicinity of the gas plant on Depot street a crocus bag containing a quantity of patent medicines. As a natural consequence the officer seized the bag and began an investigation. He visited every drug store in the city, but none of the druggists claimed the goods.

The bag contained three different kinds of medicines, being an assortment of Pioneer's Lagrippe Cure, Dr. O'Dell's Beef Iron and Wine, and Dr. O'Dell's Liver Medicine.

Marshal Arnow requests The Sun to state that the owners of these goods may have same upon identifying them. They were evidently not stolen in Gainesville.

Death of Mrs. Wooldridge.

Mrs. W. N. Wooldridge, about sixty years of age, died at her home in Tampa Friday, and Saturday night the remains passed through this city en route to Cedar Key, where the funeral will be held today. The remains were taken in charge here by Undertaker Robt. McClellan, who will have charge of the arrangements at Cedar Key.

Deceased was well known throughout this section, having resided at Cedar Key for many years. She was a devout Christian, a member of the Episcopal church.

Deceased is survived by a husband and two daughters, to the memory of whom